

WGAM JUNIOR SCHOLARSHIP FUND, INC.

Dear Applicant:

Enclosed please find the application to be a WGAM Junior Scholar. Please read the instructions carefully and be sure to complete all sections. Return to:

WGAM Junior Scholarship Fund, Inc.
c/o Jeanne-Marie Boylan
300 Commercial Street – Suite 1002
Boston, MA 02109

Eligibility:

In order to apply to become a WGAM Junior Scholar an applicant must be a MA resident female high school senior who is one of the following:

- Past WGAM member
- Mass Golf member
- Daughter/Granddaughter of a past WGAM member
- Massachusetts Resident with an interest in golf

Selection Criteria include:

- Character and Personality
- High School Academic Performance and Record
- Leadership Qualities
- Community/Civic involvement

YOUR COMPLETED APPLICATION IS DUE ON OR BEFORE
5:00 p.m. on Friday , July 17th 2020

All applications will be reviewed to confirm eligibility and a complete application. Once it is determined that an application meets the selection criteria the applicant will be contacted to schedule an interview with the WGAM Junior Scholarship Interview Committee.

Those applicants that select the option to be considered for financial assistance must demonstrate financial need. In order to be considered for a monetary award you must submit all the required items in sections F and G by the specified dates. If you fail to return each item by the due date your application will be deemed incomplete. Monetary awards will be made on the basis of relative financial need.

An eligible applicant who demonstrates no financial need but meets the selection criteria may be named a WGAM Junior Scholar, but receive no financial aid.

All applicants will be contacted to schedule telephone interviews. Interviews will be scheduled only after your application is submitted and the Trustees have confirmed that you are eligible.

If you have any questions regarding the Scholarship Application or the award process, please feel free to contact:
